

Music Teacher: Lower School

Inquiries, with resumé, should be directed to employment@belmontclassical.org

SUMMARY

Belmont Classical Academy is seeking an enthusiastic, self-motivated, and caring music teacher for children in grades 1– 4 (ages 6-9).

HOURS

This is a part-time position. Four hours of teaching per week, one hour training, and one hour of prep, for a total of six paid hours per week. If qualified, and more hours are desired, this position may be combined with other teaching positions at the school.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Responsibilities for this position include:

- Enthusiastically implement the Belmont Classical Academy curriculum.
- Demonstrate a commitment to professional growth in classical, Christian education through attendance at weekly faculty meetings, yearly participation in the Belmont teacher conference, and self-paced study.
- Maintain good discipline in two classes of students from Junior Kindergarten to 6th Grade, while showing each student respect and dignity as a child of God.
- Receive feedback from administrators upon observation, and effectively implement suggestions for improvement.
- Wholeheartedly support the Belmont mission and motto, and adhere to Biblical, Christian teachings and conduct.

This teacher will report to the Head of School.

EXPERIENCE

Previous experience teaching children ages 6-9 is required.

EDUCATION

Bachelor's degree, preferably in music or with significant coursework in music.

COMPENSATION

Commensurate with experience.

BELMONT
CLASSICAL ACADEMY